Williams Travel and Cruises Announces Grand Re-Opening

July 27, 2009 (FPRC) -- Dallas, Texas – July 27, 2009 – Dana Williams is pleased to announce the re-opening of Williams Travel and Cruises, an online-based travel agency specializing in cruises, all-inclusive resort vacations, and group travel. Williams Travel and Cruises is owned and operated by Williams, and is an affiliate of Florida-based Cruises and Tours Unlimited.

Williams, a homebased travel agent has extensive training and knowledge in cruises and land-based vacation tours. She works with all the major cruiselines and all-inclusive resort vendors.

“I’m very excited to help my clients get the best deals on their vacations,” says Williams, a Dallas-area resident. “So many people have the misconception that they will save money by booking their own travel online. By using my services, they will save time by putting my travel experience to work for them, and it won’t cost them any additional money.

Clients wanting to inquire about booking travel with the agency, can book online via the website or they can call Dana directly for a customized quote.

As an introductory offer, Williams Travel and Cruises is offering a $25 gift card to any client booking a group cruise between the dates of August 1-31, 2009.
